ALEXANDRIA, VA., THURSDAY EVENING, AUGUST 23, 1906.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

Are You Tired, Nervous and Sleepless?

Nervousness and sleeplessness are usually due to the fact that the nerves are not fed on properly nourishing food; they are starved nerves. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes pure, rich blood, and thereby the nerves are properly nourished and all the organs of the body are run smoothly as machinery which runs in oil. In this way you feel clean, strong and vigorous, and you are good for a whole lot of physical or mental work. Best of all, the strength and increase in vitality and health are lasting. The trouble with most tonics and medicines which have a large, booming sale for a short time, is that they are largely composed of alcohol holding the drugs in solution. This alcohol shrinks up the red blood corpuscles, and in the long run greatly injures the system. One may feel exhilarated and better for the time being, but in the end the weakness and with it the nervousness, is increased. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery contains no alcohol. Every bottle of it bears upon its wrapper The Badge of Honesty, in a full list of all its ingredients. For the druggist to offer you something he claims is "just as good" is to insult your intelligence. Every ingredient entering into the world-famous "Golden Medical Discovery" has the unanimous approval and endorsement of the leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice. No other medicine sold through druggists for like purposes has any such endorsement. The "Golden Medical Discovery" not only produces all the good effects to be obtained from the use of Golden Seal root, in all stomach, liver and bowel troubles, as in dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, ulceration of stomach and bowels and kindred ailments, but the Golden Seal root used in its compound is greatly enhanced in its curative action by other ingredients such as Stone Root, Black Cherry bark, Bloodroot, Mandrake root and chemically pure triple-refined glycerine. The Common Sense Medical Adviser, is sent free in paper covers on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only. For 31 stamps the cloth-bound volume will be sent. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, biliousness and headache.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water? If you did what would you say of him? It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of dandruff and to prevent baldness by rubbing the scalp with what is called "Herpicide," which causes it with Cantharides, Vasoline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called hair Vigors. Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots. It is the original and only genuine scalp medicine manufactured. Send five stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT EXCORTATED.

Secretary Charles A. Edwards, of the democratic Congressional committee, in a statement made in Washington last night, said:

"President Roosevelt is attempting to dominate this Congressional fight. His letter to Congressman James E. Watson, of Indiana, has proved my assertion. He tells the country, through this letter to Mr. Watson, that the republicans must be in this campaign to win the House. Mr. President Roosevelt is a very forceful politician. He knows that his Congressional campaign managers are not equal to the situation, and because of his personal popularity with the people of this country, who do not know his motives and do not understand him, and, believing that he is fighting in their interests, will endorse him, he assumes the management of the campaign with the glad acclaim of the managers of the republican congressional committee.

"Mr. President Roosevelt practically tells the democratic party to get off the earth and dissolve itself. He practically tells all the people that he is 'it,' and that, therefore, they must listen to him and his bugle.

"The chief thing in the letter to Mr. Watson from the President of the United States is that the tariff question must be relegated to the rear and await republican revision in their own time and opportunity, thus continuing to subvert the interests of the tariffed monopolies that grow fat on the people's pocketbook.

"The thing for which President Roosevelt is pluming himself most in this letter consists of octopus-chasing and trust-busting. He says that it is not necessary to revise the tariff in order to bust trusts. I say it is. So does every other man who knows the situation. There are two brands of trust-busting—the chasing of octopuses and the busting of trusts that are odious, and the chasing of octopuses and the busting of trusts that are popular. As yet President Roosevelt has only undertaken the first of these; he has not yet assailed a popular monopoly. He has been chasing execrable trusts and disciplining the loathsome octopuses. That is easy. Any man can kick a mean dog and get the applause of the populace.

"Now, for example, the railroads. Whoever heard of a friend of the railroads in politics? Then there is the Standard Oil, without one single friend on the political bialto from the Rio Grande to Puget sound. As for the meat trust, everybody is cursing it and trying to invent something to say about it that is meaner than the limitation of the English language will allow to be formed into speech. The tobacco trust, without a friend; adulterated food, bad whiskey, without a friend; the insurance knaves, absolutely friendless, though the New York Supreme Court has decided that it is not illegal for them to take of their customers' trust funds to buy votes if the votes are in the interest of a virtuous party, for it is given to the party of 'great moral ideas' to work iniquity that the right may triumph and the uncorrupted be discomfited, and things like that.

"Now, there is an octopus in this land of ours—the head devil of the whole lot—the tariff octopus. This is a very popular octopus. It can muster an immense majority in either wing of the Fifty-ninth Congress. It is the octopus Colonel Bryan is anxious to smite and slay, and this, and it is 'narrated around' that it was to be burst under the monster's belly in the closing hours of the late momentous session; but, like General Beauregard at Shiloh, the President appears to have argued that it was glory enough for one session, for the whole country was applauding his exploits in behalf of democratic policies. Not one thing has he recommended and not one thing was done by his republican Fifty-ninth Congress, first session, that did not emanate from democratic brains or was stolen from democratic platforms. All the things that favored the people's interests were passed by democratic votes, and his own party despised him and his recommendations, but were whipped into line by his power of patronage.

"Mr. President brags about the first session of the Fifty-ninth Congress passing a generous naval bill, carrying on the idea that there must be a big navy in order to maintain the Monroe doctrine and other things. It did. It passed a bill carrying an appropriation for millions of dollars in the interest of the steel and armor plate trust. A few days ago an independent anti-trust armor-plate company made bids for those steel vessels, and Mr. Roosevelt's Secretary of the Navy refused to give the contract to the lowest bidder (the anti-trust bidder), and compelled them to divide with the trust.

"The people of the country, democrats and republicans alike, seem to have got it stuck into their crops that Mr. Roosevelt is infallible and can do no wrong; that he is working honestly and consistently in their interests, when the real truth is that he is a fakir and a four-flusher, and the deepest scheming politician in all the country. He never hesitates to deny any assertion made at any time when he thinks it suits him and the republican party's interests. There never yet was a public man who went up against him that he did not call a liar when he got in controversy with the public man, and every newspaper correspondent in Washington who has gone up against him in the White House knows that he has to carry a witness with him if he expects to get away with the story he gets from him, and then not get fired by his managing editor when this man calls him a liar the next day. That's the sort of man he is, and the people out in the country ought to get onto him. This political fakir could make more money selling soap at the tail gate of a wagon than any fakir I ever heard of or saw in my life."
